'Burn The Orphanage

Volume 1: Born to

Lose' does start with a burning orphanage and a bunch of angry streetfighting types, but it never gave me a reason to care about the orphanage or even these silly cartoonish streetfighting types. The story started so abruptly, I felt like I had missed something.

Orphanage,
Volume 1: Born To Lose
Review (Sina Grace,
Daniel Freedman)

Someone burns down an orphanage in a book called Burn the Orphanage - this is a book that doesn't mess about with things like subtlety or metaphor and goes for plain-speaking, up-front storytelling instead. And this is both its charm and its undoing.
