California criminal law - Wikipedia

While many of its criminal laws and sanctions are similar to those of other states, California is unique in a number of ways. For instance, marijuana possession in the state is a minor offense punishable by a modest fine. However, California also has overcrowded prisons and has received numerous complaints from inmates about inhumane conditions.

Criminal Law uses a two-step process to augment learning, called the applied approach. First, after building a strong foundation from scratch, Criminal Law introduces you to crimes and defenses that have been broken down into separate components. It is so much easier to memorize and comprehend the subject matter when it is simplified this way. However, becoming proficient in the law takes more ...
