Anna Campbell. First of all, there is no way for me to write this review without offering up major spoilers, so consider this fair warning. Based on this book, apparently the Powers That Be at Avon think we're ready for a return to the bodice rippers of old, complete with a mean hero, a powerless heroine, and forced sex. Yes, indeed, not only is her bodice ripped more than once, but the heroine of Claiming the Courtesan is forced by the hero to have sex against her will (and, from my ...
