Origin of Tom Yum Soup. Tom yum soup (also known as tom yum goong) is believed to have originated in Central Thailand. It translates to English as tom (“to boil”) yum (“spicy and sour”), and goong (“prawns”). It’s a sweet, sour, and spicy soup that’s typically made with makrut lime leaves, lime juice, fish sauce, galangal, crushed peppers, lemongrass, and shrimp.

Origins of Queso. Queso, also called chile con queso, is a melty, cheesy dip that's typically served alongside tortilla chips. It's believed to have originated in Texas in the early 1900s (). Though you may find chile con queso at some Mexican restaurants in the US, it's much different than the authentic Mexican queso (called queso fundido) that likely inspired it.

The chicken was fantastic & the brisket is almost finished—spices and juices are unearthly. I'll be serving your brisket as a main dish to my book club at a potluck next month where we watch a book made into a film and watch the film, then discuss both after our fine meal. Thanks so much for the delicious recipes.
