A Sacred Journey tells the story of a miniature Guru Granth Sahib Ji (1 inch cubed), created in the early 1900s at the request of the British High Commission, and how it finds its way to Canada. The story is told through the eyes of the individuals who possess this holy artifact, and how history shaped their lives.

A Sacred Journey (2013) - Plot Summary - IMDb

Usually, a journey begins with a sacred smudging ceremony to honor the elements of earth, air, fire, and water. In addition, smudging is a personal and group declaration that each person has come to the ceremony in a good and kind way, with an open heart, and with respect for the teachings.

2) When you live in your head, or in the world of ideas and analysis, there is a tendency to ignore feelings and shut down your heart. In making the film, Ronna discovered that she was living mostly in her mind and ignoring her heart. One of the easiest ways to reconnect to one's heart, says Ronna, is to try this simple practice: Look into the mirror and say to yourself, "I accept myself."
